

The Church of St. James Whitehaven was consecrated on 25th July 1753, the Feast of St. James, Apostle and Martyre, by the Bishop of Carlisle, acting for the Bishop of Chester.

It was a Chapel-of-ease to the Parish Church of St. Bees, up to 1835 when, by an order in Council, St. James Church was assigned a seperate district.

The incumbents, during the period covered by the Registers, were as follows :-
1753 Thomas Spedding.

1783 John Waite (non resident) Curate Thomas Stephenson.
 1790 Richard Armitstead.
 1821 Wm. Jackson, later Provost of The Queen's College, Oxford.
 1833 John Jenkins.
